

Waitangi Day Exhibition 2022 31 January – 7 February 2022

Terms and Conditions - Amended

THEME: Te Taiao

the natural environment that surrounds us

These Terms and Conditions apply to art works exhibited at the Waitangi Day 2022 exhibition organised by the Te Anau Waitangi Charitable Trust. Submissions open on 22 December 2021 and close on 28 January 2022.

The art will be publicly displayed in the week leading up to and during the Waitangi Day in February 2022 at the Fiordland Arts Hub on 23 Main Street, Te Anau.

There are four categories: pre-school, primary, secondary and adult. The adult section is open only to previously not exhibited work. New and not previously exhibited work is preferred in all categories.

The art work has to be labelled at the back with the artist's name, title of the work and a contact phone number at the minimum.

All art must be the sole and original work of the artist (or artists, if a collaboration piece).

Where repurposed or mass-produced materials are used as the base of the art work, the artist's original component has to be significant to be considered original. Non original component(s) have to be disclosed by the artist.

It is the artist's responsibility to acknowledge any copyright (such as if painting from a photograph not taken by the artist) or credits (such as if the art work has been created in an art course).

Artists can work in any media, both 2D and 3D.

The Te Anau Waitangi Charitable Trust retains full discretion to accept or refuse any art works.

The size and number of accepted art works may be limited depending on available display space. No more than three works per artist are preferred.

During the exhibition period, art works can be offered for sale. Sold works will remain exhibited at the Fiordland Arts Hub until the last day of the exhibition. Art works will not be shipped by the Fiordland Arts Hub on behalf of the artist. If shipping is requested the buyer and the artist will be put in touch to make arrangements prior to the work being sold.

No commission will be charged for sold works. Payments will be made to the nominated bank account by the end of February 2022.

Once the exhibition is closed, art works may continue to be exhibited and for sale at the Fiordland Arts Hub at the sole discretion of the Fiordland Arts Society. Standard Fiordland Arts Society T&C's and commission rates will apply if a work is sold: 30% for Fiordland Arts Society members (further reduced for students and/or if the exhibitor can volunteer at the Hub) and 40% for non-members. Payments will be made to a nominated bank account at the end of the month in which the work sold.

If any enquiries are made by the exhibition visitors the artist's contact details will be passed on. If available, artists are encouraged to provide their business cards.

All submitted art must be supplied with an entry form which can be obtained from the Fiordland Arts Hub and the Te Anau Waitangi Charitable Trust.

All framed work artwork must be professionally presented and ready for hanging. Unframed work should preferably be matted or have a background mat/sheet.

Artists exhibit at their own risk. While all reasonable care will be taken, the Te Anau Waitangi Charitable Trust and the Fiordland Arts Hub cannot be held responsible for damage or theft of the art works. We recommend that artists contact their insurance company and list the exhibited work on their private contents insurance.

The arts works can be dropped off between 22 December 2021 and 28 January 2022 at the Fiordland Arts Hub at 23 Main Street during open hours. Please do not drop off art works outside open hours. All submitted art needs to be suitably protected when dropped off. Artworks without an entry form will not be accepted.

Upon completion of the exhibition, the artist will collect their art at a prearranged time and place.

By entering this competition, the artist gives permission for the artworks to be photographed for record keeping purposes, promotion, marketing and other purposes. Photographs of art work may be used by the Te Anau Waitangi Charitable Trust and their agents in various media including but not limited to, print and social media. Unless not practically possible the artists will be acknowledged. The copyright remains with the artist however the Te Anau Waitangi Charitable Trust cannot be held responsible for any subsequent misuse of copyright.
